

A unique partnership

Key Communities is a unique partnership that is committed to providing quality housing to meet the needs of local communities.

Uniting seven housing associations in a common cause, Key Communities offers a strong combined development pipeline across the East of England and East Midlands.

The partners offer a unique blend of skills:

- A track record of partnership developments
- Excellent understanding of stakeholder needs
- Strong commercial awareness
- Experienced development teams
- Key worker expertise

bpha, the lead partner in Key Communities, is an investment partner of the Housing Corporation and is the Government-appointed HomeBuy agent for Cambridgeshire, Peterborough, Bedfordshire and West Suffolk, as well as for the Northamptonshire zone.

With a 'good' two-star rating from the independent Audit Commission and the maximum four green lights from the Housing Corporation, bpha has a strong track record of delivery.
